International Workshop

Cross-Border Debt Recovery in the EU

Application of the “second generation” regulations in France and Luxembourg

Friday, 8 June 2018

The workshop is organised in the framework of the IC2BE research project “Informed Choices in Cross-Border Enforcement”. Funded by the Justice Programme (2014-2020) of the European Commission, this project (JUST-AG-2016-02) aims to assess the working in practice of the “second generation” of EU regulations on procedural law for cross-border cases, i.e. the European Enforcement Order, Order for Payment, Small Claims (as amended by Regulation (EU) 2015/2421) and the Account Preservation Order Regulations. The project is carried out by a European consortium (the MPI Luxembourg and the universities of Antwerp, Complutense of Madrid, Milan, Rotterdam, and Wroclaw) and is coordinated by Prof. Jan von Hein, from the University of Freiburg.

The workshop on June 8th at the Max Planck Institute Luxembourg will address the application in practice of the above-mentioned regulations in Luxembourg and France. The workshop will bring together both people from academia and practitioners.

Presentations on each of the regulations will be given by Prof. Cyril Nourissat, Mr. Marc Cagniard, Dr. Agnieszka Frąckowiak-Adamska, Mr. Max Mailliet, Dr. Alina Ontanu, Ms. Julie Jasson, Dr. Katharina Raffelsieper, Ms. Katrien Baetens, Mr. Grégory Minne and Ms. Clara Mara-Marhuenda, Ms. Alice Canet, followed by a panel discussion with interventions of several experts. The Panel Discussion will count with the presence of, i.a., Prof. Gilles Cuniberti, Dr. Justus Froehlich, Mr. Patrick Gielen, Prof. Olivier Hance, Mr. Jona van Leeuwen, Dr. Stephan Lesage-Mathieu, Dr. Carl Friedrich Nordmeier, Dr. Herbert Woopen, for a fruitful discussion.

The workshop is conceived as a closed event. However, people having a special interest on the topic are invited to apply for admission upon condition they provide a short explanation as to their interests.
