

Monsanto Capital

Internship Finance-Accounting

Lisbon

(m\f)

Company

Monsanto is specialized in mid-market M&A advisory, growth equity, debt advisory & DCM, targeting medium/large private companies, private equity firms, family offices and experienced management teams.

Monsanto Capital is a proud member of Oaklins, the world's largest M&A alliance with more than 850 professionals globally and dedicated industry advisers in 45 countries. With direct experience advising businesses operating in every industry sector worldwide, Oaklins closes hundreds of deals annually. In the past 5 years, member firms have advised on and closed more than 1,700 transactions.

Responsibilities

The intern will be involved in drafting presentations, pitch books and memoranda, financial modelling and other supporting activities in the execution of corporate finance transactions. Typical outputs include:

- Financial analysis
- Strategic business analysis
- Detailed industry research
- Valuation Analysis
- Assist in the preparation of pitches and marketing materials.

Candidate Profile

- Strong academic history, Degree in Finance, Management and Economics areas
- Strong numerical and analytical skills, aptitude to think strategically.
- Autonomous and multi-tasking
- Capability to work under tight deadlines, excellent time management and prioritization.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Fluency in Portuguese and English
- Excellent skills with MS Office (Word, Excel, Power Point)

Applications: Send your application to Diana Ribeiro: dribeiro@monsantocapital.pt